

2012 Net Distribution Projects

Ghana: 3,000 Nets

In March, in partnership with Kairos 10, 3,000 nets were distributed.

Sierra Leone: 1,000 Nets

In April, Sam Brickson of the All-African Baptist Fellowship completed a net distribution in the rural Moyamba District of Sierra Leone. Working with young people, Sam distributed 1,000 nets to those most vulnerable to malaria.

Uganda: 1,500 Nets

In June, partnering with the Bushenyi Alliance for Rural Health & Development (BARHD), His Nets distributed nets in rural Uganda. This marked BARHD's 10,000th net distributed over the past few years!

Ghana: 3,000 Nets

In August, His Nets partnered again with Kairos 10 to distribute 3,000 nets.

Zimbabwe: 500 Nets

In August, in celebration of the 30th Anniversary of the All-African Baptist Youth Fellowship in Harare, Zimbabwe, Sam Brickson lead African youth in distributing 500 nets to pregnant women and mothers of young children.

Kenya: 1,000 Nets

In September, in partnership with a mission group from Global Outreach/First Baptist Church Ellisville, Missouri, 1,000 nets were distributed in 4 villages in the Rift Valley.

India: 1,600 Nets

In late 2012, His Nets partnered with Sister Leena Lavanya to distribute 1,600 bed nets in 17 villages of the Nallamala Forest area of Andra Pradesh.

Burma: 1,000 Nets

In late 2012, His Nets partnered with Tallowood Baptist Church, Houston, TX and the Kuki Baptist Convention in India, to distribute nets in Northern Burma.

Kenya: 1,000 Nets

In November, His Nets partnered with Kairos 10 and a church in England to deliver nets to an orphanage and its surrounding community in Kenya.

Kenya: 1,000 Nets

In late 2012 and early 2013, in another ongoing partnership with Africa Exchange, 1,000 nets were sent to Sam Harrell, a life-long missionary in Kenya working to empower villages to improve their standards of living.
